

ALAN F. LEVIN

THE LEVIN LAW GROUP, P.C.

Alan F. Levin is the Managing Officer of The Levin Law Group, P.C. A former civil litigator for many years, Mr. Levin has heavily focused his practice on alternative dispute resolution for the past two decades. During that time, he has mediated or arbitrated approximately 5,000 cases, focusing on complex business disputes, intellectual property, bankruptcy, serious personal injury, construction, real estate, class actions, securities fraud and medical malpractice.

Mr. Levin has been widely recognized, both locally and nationally, as one of the leading practitioners in the field of alternative dispute resolution. Utilizing his experience as a trial and appellate attorney, together with his background in clinical psychology and as the CEO of a national bank, Mr. Levin is able to comfortably handle disputes of any size involving most any civil litigation topic. He faithfully reads all advance submissions and eagerly begins each mediation day anticipating a comprehensive resolution. He has achieved an impressive success rate, but, most of all, he enjoys working with the attorneys and their respective clients.
